1. This is an application for grant of bail. The applicant is shown as an accused in C.R.No.21/2006 registered by the Mahad City Police station, Dist. Raigad, for alleged offences under Sections 302, 201, 34, 120-B, 392 & 398 of IPC. The prosecution case is that one Deepak Shelar who was an activist of National Congress Party was killed by the accused who belonged to the Shivsena. The allegation against the present applicant is that he has supplied chopper and sword. It is argued that there is no material mentioned in the charge-sheet against the present applicant. This fact is conceded by the APP. It appears that the Sessions Court refused bail because there was an allegation of conspiracy under Section 120-B. Taking into account the concession made by the APP, it is directed that pending his trial in connection with C.R.No.21/2006 registered by the Mahad city police station, the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to the condition that he will report to the I.O. of Mahad city police station as and when called upon to do so in writing. Application stands disposed off.
